

Name: _____

Time Magazine Article Rubric

Requirements	Fails to meet Expectations	Partially meets Expectations	Meets Expectations
Article Layout
Engaging and relevant article title	Article title not provided	Title provided not relevant to the article	Engaging and relevant article title provided
A byline, date and place	Failed to include author's name, date, and place	Missing author's name, date, or place	Name of the Author, Date , and where the article's story occurred
Introduction, 3 body paragraph and a conclusion Min. 5 paragraph.	Article has two paragraphs or less	Article has 3-4 paragraphs	Meets the required number of paragraphs
Article is edited by a peer. Editor's name included at the end of the article.	Article shows no signs of any review	Article is missing the editor's name or was not edited by a peer	Articles has been peer reviewed and includes reviewer's name
Information
Student articulates and relates the research subject to current events and its significance.	No connections were made to the student's research topic	Student provides connections to current events but fails to explain their significance	Students provides connections to current events and their significance to their subject
Article presents evidence, facts and graphs to support your claims	No evidence provided to support the author's claims	Students provides evidence but fails to explain how it supports his/her claims	Evidence for claims provided and explained
Students addresses possible objections or counter evidence	No counter evidence provided	Student provides counter evidence but fails to explain it	Student provides and explains counter evidence
The article is grammatically correct	The articles has over 5	The article contains 1-5	The article contains no

	grammatical errors	grammatical errors	grammatical errors
--	--------------------	--------------------	--------------------